WARMWATER ANGLER'S DIARY

Volunteer angler diary data is used in conjunction with biological sampling and creel census information to monitor the condition of, and assess future management options for warmwater fish populations in Washington.

Your participation is important to us!

How to use your Angler Diary

1) Fill the sheet out only for yourself. Use a new sheet for each fishing day! If a partner would like to participate, fill out a separate diary sheet for that person's catch.

2) Remember to record unsuccessful trips too!

This data is important for warmwater fish management!

3) Under Hours Fished, indicate the number of hrs. spent actually fishing for each species (exclude travel and lunch).

Be sure to completely fill out your diary sheets!

Incomplete diary sheets may not be usable!

Species Codes:

Walleye	WAL	Black Crappie	BC
Largemouth	LMB	Tiger Muskie	TMK
Smallmouth	SMB	Channel Cat	CC

See reverse for an example of how to use your diary.
